

INTERNATIONAL BOBSLEIGH & SKELETON FEDERATION

Development Program 2020/21 (Guidelines and Funding Classification)

(Status July 3rd 2020)

Emerging Nations (EN):

... are nations, which do not have a minimum of 2 athletes among the top 35 (men: 2-man Bobsleigh and Men's Skeleton), among the top 25 (Women's Skeleton) and among the top 20 (2-woman Bobsleigh) in the IBSF-discipline ranking of the previous season.

Development Program (DVP):

All athletes from EN under 30 years of age, who are in possession of a valid IBSF license, with the exception of the above-listed top athletes, are eligible for the support within the scope of the DVP. These athletes will be reimbursed for their costs (max. 10 training runs per event, max. 5 overnight stays up to the of amount of € 50.-/night) for the IBSF supported pay-training and bob and skeleton schools, provided that they also participate in the specific race following the training.

Athletes under the age of 24 will be reimbursed for all track runs (limits see above) and overnight stays (max. € 50.-/night) during the IBSF supported pay-training and bob and skeleton schools, provided that they also participate in the specific race following the training.

This support is conditional on mandatory participation in various IBSF programs (e.g. Anti-Doping education, material workshops, start training etc.). An athlete can remain in the program for a maximum of one Olympic cycle and must prove his/her (further) development by participating in IBSF athletics and start tests.

A maximum of 2 athletes/2 teams (team = pilot and brakeman) per gender and nation can be admitted to the program in the disciplines listed below:

- Skeleton
- 2-man/4-man Bobsleigh
- 2-woman Bobsleigh /Women's Monobob

Small Nations (SMN):

...are nations that do not have at least 3 athletes/bobsleigh teams (women and men together), which are placed in the IBSF discipline ranking list of the last season among the top 35 (men: 2-man Bobsleigh and Skeleton), among the top 30 (Women's Skeleton) and the top 20 (2-woman Bobsleigh).
