The image shows a page of a document with a calendar for the 2022/2023 season. The calendar includes various sports events and locations. The events are color-coded and listed under different categories such as World Championships, North American Cup, and others. Each event is associated with specific dates and locations. The calendar spans from January to April, with events for both BOB and SKN (Surface Guide and Skeleton) categories. The document appears to be a part of the IBSF (International Bobsleigh and Skeleton Federation) Sport calendar, version 6, as indicated by the title at the top of the page.
